

Department: History
Staff: Mr. M. Jeyaraj
Subject: Principle and methods of Archaeology
Subject code: EHI617
Year: III Year

5 Marks:

1. Nature and aims of Archaeology.
2. Christian Thomsen (1788-1863).
3. History of Archaeology in Indian.
4. Alexander Cunnighan.
5. Discovery of Mycenaean civilization?
6. Write an essay on the contributions of Alexander.
7. Sir William Jones or Sir John Marshall.
8. Adicanallur or Pugalur.
9. Azhagankulam or Uraiur.
10. "Archaeology presents another method of approach to History" Explain.
11. Enumerate the Functions of an Archaeologist.
12. How Archaeology is helpful in better understanding of Humanism.
13. Trace the role of Archaeological survey of India.
14. Explain the significance of Uraiur in Archeological Sense.
15. Write about the excavation of Industrial site of Kodumanal.
16. Write a short essay on how you have applied the Principles and methods of Archeology in your field visit.

10 Marks:

1. Ains and method of excavation?
2. Pre – History of India Old Stone age?
3. The various kinds of Archaeology?
4. Cunningham in the field of Archaeological.
5. Explain the importance of Mortimer wheeler in the Archaeological history of south Indian.
6. Describer the historical importance of Poompuhar in the History of Tamil Nadu.
7. Define Archaeology. Discuss the significance of various kinds of Archaeology in the realm of Archaeology.
8. "Archaeology is half science and half humanity"- do you agree or disagree, substantiate the statement in your own words.
9. Estimate the Contribution of Sri John Marshall and Sir Mortimer wheeler to Indian Archaeology.
10. Primary source in Archaeology.
11. Explain the Archaeology institution in India.

12. Role of Archaeologist.